NEW GROUP CEO APPOINTED

Joseph Azzopardi has been appointed as the new CEO of MUHC and commenced his duties on Monday 5th November. Following a handover, the Acting CEO, Joe Bugeja, will return to his prior position as Deputy Finance Director at University. While welcoming the new CEO on board, we would like to thank Joe Bugeja for his constant support during his three month term as Acting CEO.

Please turn to page 2 to read a message from the new CEO, Joe Azzopardi.

MESSAGE FROM THE NEW GROUP CEO, JOE AZZOPARDI

It is my pleasure to introduce myself to all staff of Malta University Holding Company and its subsidiary companies.

I am 52 years old and have been married to Brenda for the past 20 years. We have two children, Martina (11) and Andrew (9). I am an accountant by profession and have also recently obtained my Master's Degree in Financial Services.

Most of my previous working experience has been within the communications industry where I occupied a range of executive management positions. Before joining MUHC I spent in excess of three years as the Finance Director of Mater Dei Hospital.

I am looking forward to the opportunity to work with every member of staff to move forward this Group within the policy directions handed down by the Board of Directors.

"Coming together is a beginning. Keeping together is progress. Working together is success."
~ Henry Ford

HOTEL KAPPARA

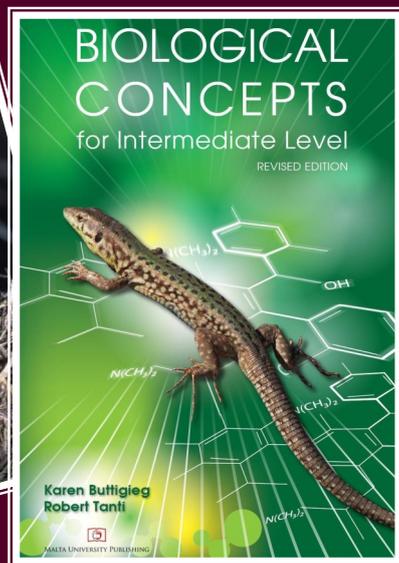

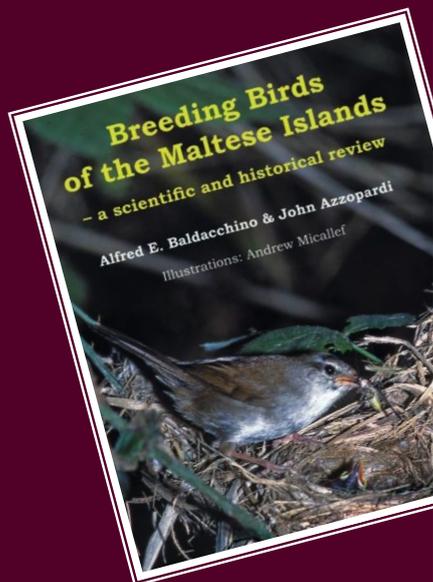

Following Frans Grech's resignation from his position as Hotel Manager at Hotel Kappara, Chris Schinas will now be managing both the Malta University Residence and Hotel Kappara. We would like to wish Chris the best of luck in his new dual role.

MALTA UNIVERSITY PUBLISHING

The following books have recently been published by Malta University Publishing:

- The Breeding Birds of the Maltese Islands – a scientific and historical view.
- Biological Concepts for Intermediate Level (second revised edition).
