FAREWELL AND GOOD LUCK

After seven years of hard work and commitment, Katia Stagno Navarra will be leaving the Malta University Language School at the end of September. On behalf of all at MUHC, we would like to thank Katia for her efforts during these years and wish her the best for her future endeavours.

FOCUS ON PERSONNEL:

CHRIS SCHINAS

OPERATIONS MANAGER AT THE MALTA UNIVERSITY RESIDENCE

Although Chris was born in Malta, he is of Greek descent. He studied Hospitality Management at ITS and subsequently attended University in England, where he graduated in Hospitality Management with Tourism. He spent five years living and working in England.

Also a talented sportsman, Chris played football for Malta under 16's and under 18's and played for Naxxar in the Premier League for two years. While in England, he played for Crawley Town in the Conference League. He currently competes in Olympic weightlifting.

"The Malta University Residence is a lively colourful place filled with vibrant, funny, smart, caring people from around the globe, some who will become best friends." (Chris Schinas)
