Data Privacy Statement

MUC Ltd. requests, collects and processes your personal data to effect registration to our seminars, courses and/or events and to organize such events, including to close conference finances. We will retain the necessary data until we have collected all funds due, and we will also retain your contact details for marketing purposes, to update you about similar courses we offer from time to time, as well as about our other courses and/or services depending on your preferences indicated above. You may opt out of this correspondence at any time.

Your personal data is accessible to MUC employees who are required to process it by virtue of their roles and responsibilities. We will not share it with third parties unless this is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which we are subject, unless this is necessary to protect your vital interests or the vital interests of third parties, unless this is necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest, or unless you have given us your consent.

You have the right to request access to your personal data that is held and processed by us, the right to request its rectification if it is inaccurate, the right to request data portability, and where applicable, the right to request restriction of processing or erasure of such data, and the right to object to our processing thereof.

For further queries or concerns relating to MUC's processing of your personal data, you are invited to contact our Data Protection Officer at dpo@um.edu.mt. You are furthermore reminded of your right to lodge a complaint with the Office of the Information and Data Protection Commissioner, Malta.
